MORE CHINESE SMUGGLERS

Indicted By the Grand Jury at Portland.

PROMINENT NAMES ON THE LIST.

Other Important Persons Are Involved.

More Smugglers.

PORTLAND, Dec. 3.—The Federal Grand Jury this afternoon returned 27 indictments against persons in this city for smuggling Chinese into this port from British Columbia. Following named parties are indicted:

Wm. Dunbar, Nathan Blum, James Lotan, C. J. Mulkey, C. B. Cardinell, W. B. Jackling, Alex. Ross, P. J. Bannon, Glen O. Holman, Thomas Jordan, Ex-Customs Inspector. There are 17 Chinese merchants, among whom is Seid Beck, one of the most prominent Chinese merchants in the Northwest. Holman and Bannon are notaries public and it is alleged they made out certificates. Defendants were arraigned in a body and pleaded not guilty.

Later: John Wilson of Victoria and E. P. Thompson and J. E. Marks are also indicted.

Other persons of social and political prominence are involved.

Shield's Statue Unveiled.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 3.—Shields was a meteoric figure in American history, claiming citizenship at different times in half a dozen states and everywhere honored. He was hero of two wars, represented three states, Illinois, Minnesota and Missouri in the United States senate.

He was a governor of Oregon and had begun a career cut short by war in California. His last public act was to preside over a political convention in still another state, Wisconsin.

A DUEL.

During early days in Illinois he challenged Abraham Lincoln to a duel, the cause of which always has been something of a mystery. Lincoln accepted the challenge, named broad swords, as weapons, but through intervention of friends, the duel never came off.

A VICTORY FOR LABOR.

The Lehigh Road Takes Back its Men Without Prejudice.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Dec. 3.—As a result of conference between the officers of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, the boards of arbitration of the States of New York and New Jersey and chiefs of the local and national labor organizations, which participated in the great strike on that road, the strike is declared off early this morning. The road agrees to re-employ strikers without prejudice and without regard to their membership to labor organizations, so far as places can be found for them; to listen to complaints from the grievance committee and to give old employees preference in hiring additional men.

IOWA MINES TO CLOSE.

Unless Agreement is Reached—One Thousand Men Out.

DES MOINES, Dec. 3.—One thousand miners, employed in eleven coal mines of this district, met at noon. It was unanimously decided to order a general strike, unless operators revoke the decision to withhold two weeks' pay, instead of one, and demanding pay every two weeks instead of once a month. Indications are, dispute will result in all the mines remaining closed for an indefinite period.

Populists Not in It.

TACOMA, Dec. 3.—In the city elections, held throughout this state yesterday, the Populists were overwhelmingly defeated. Republicans and citizens' tickets won everywhere. Democrats won in a few places.

HAWAIIAN MATTERS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—The state department has evidently already been informed of the news received in the Associated Press dispatch from Honolulu via Port Townsend so far as it conveyed the intention of Minister Willis to take no further steps toward carrying out his instructions until he should hear further from the department. But so far as it conveyed the public utterance in Honolulu by the minister of his intentions it was news to the department, the president and the cabinet. There were indications to show that it was not agreeable news and the impression was conveyed that the administration was rather disappointed at the manner in which Minister Willis has thus far conducted the mission. It is evident the state department received by the last steamer (Alameda) news that Minister Willis had determined to defer carrying out his instructions until he heard further from the government. It is a presumption that the Corwin carried to him further instructions for which the paragraph in the president's message referring to Hawaii was written after additional instructions to Minister Willis had been dispatched. This paragraph may be taken to reflect the spirit of the instructions. Whatever doubts Minister Willis may have expressed of the accuracy of Blount's report the president has not lost any absolute faith in the accuracy of his conclusions. It is highly probable, therefore, that the new instructions are a repetition of the old.

The Associated Press representative received today from a reliable source information of the policy intended to pursue in Hawaii. The extent of active influence intended to be employed in behalf of reseatting Liliuokalani on the throne has probably been exaggerated. The purpose of the administration is believed to be to act as arbitrator between the two parties in dispute and endeavor to prevail on them to agree between themselves. This was contingent upon the confidence and belief based on the explicit association contained in the last letter to Blount, that the provisional government would fall to pieces when notified that annexation was impracticable. In that letter which has not been published, dated Honolulu, July 21, Blount said: "The action of the United States is awaited by all as a matter of necessity. This condition, it can be assumed, will remain until the proposition to annex is accepted or rejected. In the latter contingency no sudden movement is likely to occur. The present government can only rest on the use of military force as it possessed most of the arms on the island with a small white population to draw from to strengthen it. Ultimately it will fall without fall. It may preserve its existence for a year or two, but not longer."

Enough is known of Minister Willis' impression gained since his arrival at Honolulu to make certain that he does not agree with Blount in this. The Associated Press telegram bringing late news from Hawaii was read to the cabinet meeting from an office copy in advance of publication. It was the subject for consultation in the cabinet, but probably caused no change in the plan decided on after hearing from Minister Willis by the Alameda.

The Hawaiian minister, Thurston, was not at home, but a little group of Hawaiians at the same hotel were glad to hear the news by way of Port Townsend and expressed their opinion that it gave cause for encouragement to the friends of the provisional government.

German Bondholders Preparing to Act.

O. R. & N. Co. Report.

BERLIN, Dec. 3.—The meeting of German bondholders of the Oregon Railway and Navigation Co., of which it is claimed, the largest number of shares are held in Germany, convened this morning. It is called on account of non-payment of December coupons according to report received in Berlin of Union Pacific Railways.

The meeting was convened by the Deutsche bank and there is considerable feeling among German bond holders who claim their interests seriously threatened by the attitude of receivers. Siemens, of the Deutsche bank and Dr. Barth read long report on the situation, which said the fact, that December coupons would not be paid, was nothing to frighten bond holders. The Oregon railway and navigation company, the report continued is commercially in a happy position as it was the Union Pacific's only outlet to the coast. The character of the country forbids a parallel line and that the traffic of the company can never be taken away from it.

MAY BECOME INDEPENDENT.

It was added it may be possible, in interests of Union Pacific, to make the Oregon Railway and Navigation independent company and in position to make arrangements with Northern and Central Pacific, whichever is most advisable. The meeting received the report, elected a committee to represent their interests, with full power to act.

The late Francis Parkman, the historian, was a man who had always about him an air of distinction that made the passerby turn to look at him. He was tall, stately and courtly, with old school dignity of manner.

The Chinese brother is becoming acclimated. Young Kna, a Chinaman, and a Yale graduate, who took an active part in the recent parliament of religions, is engaged to marry Miss Mary Burnham, a pretty girl of Springfield, Mass.

BRIC-A-BRAC NOVELTIES.

Little footstools in delf have been made.

Dresden china trays are in use for the toilet, the bathroom, the library and the table.

Vienna clocks are dainty panels of enamel set in temples of brass. Watteau scenes are chosen.

A suggestive bit of furniture is a standard of brass with a wreathed oval tied with a bowknot, from which a bird cage is suspended.

Fin de siecle heads of women in terra cotta—life size—are colored pink and blue in solid tints. It is a queer taste, but it appeals to some women.

For a long time collectors of bric-a-brac were in doubt as to what to do with sedan chairs. They are now used as cabinets for smaller objects of art and for newspapers and music.

Parisian knickknacks are covered with old brocade. Hearth brushes are swathed in gimp and brocade with gold fringe at the bottom as long as the bristles. Boxes of every size and shape, letter racks and blotters and screens have old brocade.—Jewellers' Circular.

MacMahon and the Prince.

On one occasion Marshal MacMahon, when president of France, suddenly interrupted a rather prosy discussion around the council table with the remark: "Ah, gentlemen, I have just received a letter from the prince imperial. He is a fine young man. I am very fond of him, and his letter is charming. I must read it to you."

The ministers gasped. With one voice they begged respectfully to remind M. le President that France was now a republic—that the very existence of a so-called prince imperial was something of which their body must avoid taking official cognizance, and that it would be most compromising to allow such a letter to be read and the facts to be entered on the minutes, as it must be.

"Oh, very well," responded M. MacMahon good naturedly, folding the letter and replacing it in his pocket. "If the proprieties forbid my reading it to you in your official capacity, I can at least read it later to each of you personally." And he did.—Kate Field's Washington.

BATTLE IN THE SENATE.

David B. Hill Challenges The President.

TO EMPLOY MILITARY FORCE.

In Order to Restore the Monarchy in Hawaii.

Hill's Challenge.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 3.—In the senate this afternoon when Hoar's Hawaiian resolution was taken up, Hill created a sensation by making perhaps the strongest speech of his sensational career. He challenged the right of the president to use military force to restore the Hawaiian queen.

"There are three coordinate branches of this Government," said he "and this authority is not vested in the President alone." The contemplated action of the President he declared would be the usurpation of the rights of Congress. Sherman also challenged the correctness of the President's position.

BIG SALARIES REFUSED.

OMAHA, Dec. 3.—In United States District court today, Judge Dundy denied application of receivers of Union Pacific to fix their salaries at $18,000 each per annum. Court also ordered receivers to deposit funds only in United States Depositories. They were instructed to turn over to treasurer of road sufficient funds to operate.

THE KEELBY BOYS.—There is no nobler enterprise afoot these days than reclaiming men from the appetite for liquor. The Keeley league announce a program elsewhere and all should attend. President Roach says: "We invite the clergy, the temperance organizations and benevolent associations to be there, and join with us in our work. We will try to thoroughly explain the methods and benefits derived from the Keeley treatment."

PHARMACY BOARD.—The state pharmacy board met at the capitol Tuesday afternoon. M. M. Davis, of Yaguira; John Lane, of Portland and D. J. Fry, of Salem, were present. Doctors L. Foley, of Lebanon, and L. H. Hall, of Portland, passed satisfactory examinations and were granted certificates. The board will meet the first Monday in March in Portland.

FEE BILLS.—The county court publishing law should be honestly enforced. The list of claims allowed at the November term of the county court are now for the first time made public. They were furnished to THE JOURNAL yesterday by the county clerk under the law requiring the claims allowed each month to be published in a newspaper of the largest circulation. The county court allows the clerk fees for making out this list, but it is not furnished until a month after. These bills for fees are not entered into the county court docket and there is no way in which the public can know what their money is paid out for. The law is nullified so far as the county court can nullify it by preventing publicity according to law, and that only increases public suspicions.

THAT DATE.—The Presbyterian entertainment occurs this evening, and you cannot afford to miss it.

The Barbara Pfeiffe Estate.

Anna Barbara Pfeiffe, who died at Portland on July 23, 1893, left real property in this county valued at about $2,500 and personal property aggregating $1,000.

In her will Mrs. Pfeiffe named as legatees Christine Kira, of Portland, and Matilda Kira, aged 21 years, Eugenia aged 20, Lenora aged 18, Selinda aged 14, being her grandchildren, Rosine Pfeiffe aged fifteen years, daughter of Andrew Pfeiffe now deceased, and Rosine W. his wife residing in Ohio.

She appointed Frederick Kira as executor of the will and yesterday he petitioned the county court to admit the will to probate and name him as the executor. This was done and W. S. Taylor, Matthias Goulet and B. A. Nathman, were appointed appraisers.

Catarth Cannot be Cured

with Local Applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarth is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarth Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarth Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarth. Send for testimonials, free.

Don't You Know that you can secure almost immediate relief from Indigestion, and that uncomfortable fullness after meals, by simply taking a dose of Simmons' Liver Regulator? Some people think that because it is called Liver Regulator it has nothing to do with Indigestion and the like. It is the inaction of the Liver that causes Indigestion, and that fullness; also Constipation, and those Bilious Headaches. Millions have been made to understand this and have been cured from these troubles by Simmons' Liver Regulator—a medicine unfailing and purely vegetable.

From Rev. M. B. Wharton, Baltimore, Md. "It affords me pleasure to add my testimony to the great virtues of Simmons' Liver Regulator. I have had experience with it, as occasion demanded, for many years, and regard it as the greatest medicine of the times. Its good & medicines deserves universal commendation."
